

Teacher's Day Speech

Good Morning to all the respected teachers and my dear friends. As we know, today we are here to celebrate teacher's day. My Self Saqlain Sheikh (Replace your name here) I would like to speech on this special occasion. But first of all, I would like to thank my class teacher to give me this opportunity.

The theme of this speech is the importance of teachers in human life. Without teachers, we cannot imagine good life. Today is 5th September and on this day we celebrate teacher's day every year. 5th September is the birthday of Dr. Sarvepalli Radhakrishnan.

He was a teacher and he became President of India in 1962 with respect to students. Dr. Sarvepalli Radhakrishnan was not only the president of India but also a great scholar and instructor. All students of India celebrate this day to pay to respect to their teachers.

It is truly said that teachers are like the groundwork of our Well organized society. They play an important role in building student's personalities and make them gentlemen. It is also truly said that teacher is great than parents Because parents only give birth to a child whereas teachers make children's bright future.

So we never forget and ignore them, we always respect and love them. They always teach us the importance of education in our life through their continuous efforts. They are an ocean of inspiration to us that helps us to achieve success. Dear friends, we should always obey our teacher's orders and follow their advice to be well-qualified citizens of India. Thank you.
